

Philly arts scene Top 5

5

1. Jazz

Sonny Fortune Quartet
There's plenty of driving, straight ahead jazz on tap, as Philly's own Sonny Fortune returns from a tour of Europe tomorrow for two gigs at his hometown club. Chris' Jazz Cafe
1421 Sansom St.
Tomorrow and Saturday
8 p.m. and 10 p.m.
$15, 215-561-3131
www.sonnyfortune.com

2. Dance

'Cinderella'
The Pennsylvania Ballet goes old school this week, with their latest production of the 1945 Prokofiev Ballet classic, "Cinderella."

3. Theater (DIY/Fringe)

'William Shakespeare's Land of the Dead'
With a young new team taking over the leadership, Plays and Players is attempting to transform Center City's community theater, to Center City's new edgy indie theater. And they're pulling out all the stops, promoting Minneapolis playwright, John Heimbuch's crazy zombie farce with an unbelievable amount of zeal: zombie's have been seen at many a pub crawl this month. Plays and Players

Sonny Fortune plays Chris' tomorrow.

www.act2playhouse.org

4. Theater (regional)

'Iron Kisses'
Pulitzer prize nominee James Still's "Iron Kisses" is a taught 90-minute drama exploring both the sacrifices and joys of the modern family. Philly favorites Tony Braithwaite and Kathryn Peterson take on multiple roles.

act II Playhouse
5 E. Butler Ave., Ambler, Pa.
Tomorrow through Apr. 5
10 - $30, 215-654-0200

5. Gallery exhibit

'Wilderness'
In his new series, Keith Crowley's paintings reveal the "Wilderness" that is our urban landscape and the myriad tributaries of highways that connect us. Bridgette Mayer Gallery
709 Walnut St.
Opening reception:
Runs through Mar. 28
Free, 215-413-8893
www.mayerartconsultants.com
BRUCE WALSH/METRO